All insurance certificates must list Teller County Building Department as the Certificate Holder to be valid.

- Testing is required unless the examinee holds an equivalent license in El Paso County (Mechanical Class-C) / Pikes Peak Regional Building Department or an equivalent I.C.C. Certification. A copy of the current El Paso license is required.

TRADE NAME / PROOF OF LEGAL ENTITY:

A trade/business name registration or legal entity (LLC, Inc., Corp., Company, etc) is required for anyone utilizing a business name. This requirement is to prevent the issuance of several licenses with the same name and/or similar names. Example: Colorado Homes, Colorado Homes, Inc., and to prevent the abuse of a company's name. Name registrations must be filed with the State of Colorado to authorize work in Colorado, and they must be dated by the registering entity within the last two years.

Acceptable forms of a legal entity include: A Certificate of Good Standing from the State of Colorado, Certificate from the Secretary of State, Department of Revenue filings, Articles of Incorporation, and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) filings.

The only time that a trade name is not required is when the person uses only their name as the business/license name. The license would be issued as – Example: Rodgers, Glen. No other words such as Construction, Contracting, Building, Builder, etc. can be added to the business name.

TESTING, if applicable:

Tests are given at The Teller County Building Department, 540 Manor Court, Woodland Park. Tests are 2 hour open-book exams. The heating tests are on the Teller County Building Code, 2009 International Mechanical Code and the 2009 International Fuel and Gas Code. The Teller County Building Code is available for $10.00 at the Building Department and is also available on our website at www.co.teller.co.us.

EXEMPTION FROM TESTING – see Article II, Section 102.e. of the Teller County Building Code

The testing requirement will be waived if the examinee or contractor for whom the examinee is the examinee holds a NON CONDITIONAL and / or limited license which is equal to the license under consideration issued by the Pikes Peak Regional Building Department or holds an equivalent current certification to the license under consideration from the International Code Council (ICC).

LETTERS OF REFERENCE – see Article II, Section 102.h. of the Teller County Building Code
