

“JJ” Jamison comes to Teller County Government after spending 25 years in the Financial Services Industry as a CFP (Certified Financial Planner, practitioner) with Ameriprise Financial Services. Successes with Ameriprise include: District Manager for 5 years recruiting, training, and developing financial advisors in Colorado Springs, 6 years service on the Leadership Conference Committee, and most notably piloting a program to bring Divorce Planning to the company as a much needed service to clients in the traumatic transition of divorce. “JJ” is accustomed to managing budgets, and assets, and developing people.

Prior to moving to Teller County in 1985 “JJ” lived in the Dallas, Texas area, and had a 13 year career in the Petroleum Industry working for a legendary “wildcatter”. With Miles Production Company “JJ” began in the engineering department, and managed accounts payable and receivable. With promotions she handled many aspects of public relations and land management. With Petroleum Land Management “JJ” is no stranger to the Courthouse setting.

Previous careers include Certified Fire Fighter, Emergency Medical Technician, Commercial Real Estate Development and Sales, and Retail Buying for the Navy Exchange Service in Atsugi Japan. As a teen she worked in a Veteran’s Hospital in Topeka, Kansas in physical and occupational therapy.

“JJ” is military brat, born in Arizona. She says she has seen the world on roller skates, and is most proud of her family’s long military service, and that of her husband’s Navy Service which include multiple tours in Viet Nam.

In Teller County “JJ” has participated in many organizations including: Charter member of the Pikes Peak Rotary Club, bringing JA (Junior Achievement) in a Day to Cresson Elementary, a member of the Board to Prospect Home Care and Hospice, Girl Scouts Wagon Wheel Council prior to becoming Girl Scouts of Colorado, Legends and Legacies Youth Corps prior to becoming Mile High Youth Corps. In her professions she has service with the International Association of Financial Planners as a Past President of the local chapter. With the time left on her hands she authored a book entitled “Grandmother Told Me”. In 2003 “JJ” was named Outstanding Woman of the Year by the Women’s Resource Expo.

“JJ” decompresses in the shooting sports and creating quilts that tell a story of their own. She has been a clown minister through her church. “Jolly Jingles” witnessed to mentally challenged adults. This is a roll that is missed; a part of her life left behind and cherished.

About her elected position as your County Clerk & Recorder she states: “I’m having a great time! The learning curve is stimulating. I enjoy the diversification of tasks. I wouldn’t take for my staff. They are all wonderful women with a great desire to serve their neighbors; the citizens of Teller County. Together we are making some great changes. I’m so glad I made the decision to run for this office, and I thank the citizens for placing their confidence in me.”
