

In response to the Article in the Pikes Peak Courier Public Works would like to add the following information regarding The West Valley Drive cut through traffic issue.

- West Valley Road is being inundated with cut-through traffic bypassing HWY24
- The physical barriers will be placed at Elizan Drive and Park Street and traffic data will be collected and evaluated as needed by Transportation to determine the effectiveness of the plan. Evaluation and adjustments may be made as determined by Teller County.