11:00 a.m. Convene in a Special Session:

The Board of County Commissioners of Teller County convened in a special session in the Teller County Centennial Building in Cripple Creek, CO.
Chairman Mr. Paul presided.
Mr. Steen gave the invocation.
Mr. Dettenrieder led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Consider appointment of the Teller County Sheriff:

Mr. Paul explained the search process for the Teller County Sheriff necessitated by the resignation from office by Mike Ensminger. Mr. Paul thanked all of the applicants and the members of the interview committee, which included the three County Commissioners, District Attorney Dan May, Woodland Park Police Chief Miles DeYoung, Cripple Creek Police Chief Mike Rulo and County Attorney Paul Hurcomb. Commissioners Dettenrieder and Steen also thanked the applicants and the interview committee.

Mr. Steen moved to appoint Jason Mikesell as the Teller County Sheriff.
Mr. Dettenrieder seconded the motion.
All Commissioners voted yes.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 11:08 a.m.
